 Inspiration of the Week

We are children of God, and as His children, God shares with us a magnificent inheritance: suffering that becomes glory, fear that becomes strength, death that becomes life. With this mighty gift in our hearts, let us go confidently into the world.

The new Sunday Mass Schedule
 Becomes effective next weekend.

Sunday Masses will be at 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

Saturday Mass remains at 4:00 p.m.

If you will be attending Sunday Mass in a neighboring parish, due to this necessary schedule change, we kindly ask you to call the parish office in order for us to update our records. The inconvenience it caused you is regrettable, as was the need for us to make such a decision. You will be missed and we wish you everything good in your new parish family.

Parish Trivia

The new church sign, that sits on the parish lawn, was made by Road Rage Designs right here, in Spring Grove. As it has been for the past 125 years, our Catholic community is strengthened by the Holy Eucharist. The large key in the middle of the sign, was designed from the actual tabernacle key used in St. Peter's Church.

Precious Things

I once wrote an article about a school that embraced the Reggio Emilia approach to education. This meant, in practice, a lot of fascinating things, and it was a fun piece to work on. But all these years later, I could not accurately describe the Reggio Emilia style of learning to anyone except to say this: they give the kids glass bowls and china plates.

That's what stuck with me, and that's what sticks out in my memory amidst the hundreds of intervening articles and interviews on other equally fascinating topics. I remember those glass bowls and cups lining the shelves, the fine china dishes, the beautiful shiny cutlery the children used for lunch.

This was a pre-school, and these students were three-year-olds. "If they drop a cup and it shatters, then they learn that glass can break. We clean it up," the teacher said with a shrug. The idea was that a child will never learn to handle a fragile, precious thing — and grow into an adult who can respect and cherish a fragile, precious thing — if they are not sincerely trusted with a precious thing whose fragility they bear personal witness to.

The breaking, you see, was part of the education.

The disciples worshiped, but they doubted. And yet, Christ gave them the Great Commission anyway, something fragile and important, something that could be easily dropped and easily broken. Christ knew who they were, what they were. They were mere human beings, deeply imperfect, scared and hesitant, a little slow on the uptake. He knows that's exactly what we are, too. But he gives us the Great Commission just as he gave it to them. Because that is what the Faith is: it is something perfectly beautiful, passed from one flawed person to another, throughout the ages — constantly dropped, constantly broken, and constantly, miraculously, pieced back together again.

*"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations."
— Matthew 28:19-20*

Matthew 28: 16-20 - The Holy Trinity

Jesus appeared to the Apostles on the mountain in Galilee to give them their final instructions. They were to go forth, baptize, and make disciples, and to teach what they had been taught. These are our instructions, too. Once we meet Jesus and experience His love for us, we can't keep Him to ourselves. We must proclaim Him.

Jesus also revealed to the Apostles, and to the crowd gathered with them, that God is a Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – three Divine Persons united in love. The belief that God is three, yet one, is distinct to Christianity. When we became members of the Church, we were baptized in the name of the Trinity.

The Trinity is a mystery we may not fully understand, but we can still live in its love and power. We proclaim our faith in it whenever we make the Sign of the Cross: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Our ultimate goal is to follow Christ into the eternal life of the Trinity.

After pre-school classes were over, Aimee Thomas was heading home and she was pulled over by the police. She was apparently his first speeder of the day because when he got to her window, he said, "I've been waiting all day for you." She said, "I got here as fast as I could." He let her go.

Spread the Gospel like Our Lady

On the feast of the Visitation (May 31), we celebrate when Mary carried the Good News of our salvation to Saints Elizabeth and Zechariah – that God took on our humanity to fulfill His promise of salvation. Today, we're also called to bring the same Good News as Mary did:

Be filled with Christ's presence: Jesus indwells in us (John 15:5) to empower us for mission. This is accomplished through the Sacraments – Baptism, Eucharist, Reconciliation. We need to offer God our open, receptive, and attentive hearts.

Become a quiet witness: Mary “kept all these things, pondering them in her heart” (Luke 2:19). Emulate her quiet witness by living with deep faith and trust in God's plan, letting your actions demonstrate the strength of your beliefs.

Proclaim the greatness of the Lord: Mary's Magnificat recalls the ways God answered the need of His people, culminating in the coming of His Son. Can you articulate your own Magnificat – recounting God's loving intervention in your life? If not, ask the Holy Spirit to reveal it to you so you can share it with others.

Serve with humble love: After receiving the news that she was to become the mother of the eternal King, Mary rushed to St. Elizabeth's side to serve her. Look for ways to imitate our humble Queen. Serve with love.
