We extend a warm welcome to Bernadette Rowe And we're glad she registered!

Registering is actually quite easy. You may simply call the Parish Office during regular business hours, or visit our parish website. After that, it's just a matter of keeping every Sunday holy by coming to Mass and participating in the life of our community!

Why do Catholics wear scapulars?

Catholics wear scapulars as a sign of their devotion to Mary and their commitment to a Christian life. The scapular, particularly the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, symbolizes Mary's protection and promises spiritual benefits to the wearer. Tradition holds that those who wear it faithfully will receive Mary's special protection and will not suffer eternal damnation. It serves as a daily reminder to live virtuously and is often associated with spiritual affiliation to religious orders like the Carmelites.

Our brother in Christ Ted Trzaskowski, saw his loving and merciful heavenly Father on June 28th.

In charity, pray for his eternal peace and for the consolation of his children, Debra and David.

Eternal rest grant unto Ted, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

OCIA... a Journey in faith

Do you attend St. Peter's Church regularly and want to know more about our beautiful faith? Do you want to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation? Maybe you have a friend who was baptized in another denomination but told you they are interested in learning about Catholicism. If so, maybe God is calling you, or them, to participate in this year's OCIA. The Orders of Christian Initiation of Adults is an amazing process for grown-ups, and no matter where you are on your own spiritual journey, you will feel welcome and comfortable! Give the idea some prayerful thought and if you would like more information, just call either Paul or Karyn at 847-337-5043.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

When Jesus taught in the synagogue of His native place, He didn't fit the image of the Messiah the people expected. They dismissed Him. Let's learn from their example and remember that God often comes to us in forms that are surprising – even challenging.

Got Faith?

Faith is not about what you see with your eyes. Faith is about what you see with your heart. "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will not believe" (John 4:48).

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St. Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me" (2 Cor. 12:9). Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

~ Father John Muir ~

Recently, Tyler Sepsey approached Father Joe and told him that he was interested in doing a project for our parish, one that would help earn him Eagle rank in scouting. Earning such a prestigious rank is not easy and it was decided that a worthy project would be the rebuilding of our cemetery altar and reinstalling our crucifix. Tyler had his work cut out! He also decided to use a creative idea of Mother Angelica, and mix our broken or unused religious articles in the altar's foundation. Thus, the "Bury Box" was created!

The Bury Box will remain in St. Peter's sanctuary until the end of July. Throughout this month, you may place, in the box, any blessed or broken religious articles that are no longer useable. Then, in August, all those items will be mixed with the concrete to be poured for foundation of the new cemetery altar & crucifix!

One whole month is plenty of time for us to do this! The Bury Box will be removed on July 31st and that will be your last opportunity to deposit your articles. Of course, you can still properly dispose of them by burying them in your own backyard.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MASS

Are you and your spouse celebrating a special milestone anniversary in 2024? Couples celebrating the milestone wedding anniversaries of 25, 50, 55, 60, 65, and 70 or more years of marriage in 2024 are invited to a special Mass in their honor at St. Mary Parish in Huntley, IL on Sunday, August 18 at 2:30 p.m. celebrated by Bishop David J. Malloy. A reception with celebration cake will immediately follow.

The Life & Family Evangelization Office welcomes your registration by phone 815-399-4300 or online at www.rockforddiocese.org/anniversary by August 2. Commemorative certificates to mark this special occasion will be available for those who pre-register for this event.

A Prophet and His Native Place

"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place." It could be the slogan of high school reunions everywhere.

I speak from experience — I didn't go to my high school reunion, but I do live in the same area in which I grew up. Ghosts from the past lurk in every grocery aisle and gas station. Former classmates fill my prescriptions at the pharmacy. I am always sure to see an old teacher or two at the Fourth of July parade.

If my teenage self knew that this was her future, she would be horrified. She wanted to grow up and move away, not because she didn't like living in this town, but because she wanted to reinvent herself. And you can't reinvent yourself in your native place. In your hometown, you'll always be exactly what you are — no more, no less.

The same was true for Jesus, who was probably the only person actually worthy of admiration at his high school reunion. When he returned to his native place, he was what he had always been — God and man, Messiah, miracle-worker. This is not something he became, it was always within him.

But the people of Nazareth cannot accept it. Why?

Well, probably for the same reason that I wanted to reinvent myself when I was 16. We don't often see anything worth venerating in the "right now" of our lives. We think happiness is a promotion or a pay bump away. We think we'll finally be holy when we find the time to take that silent retreat. We think we will be beautiful when we lose ten pounds.

The Nazarenes lived with God right under their noses, and they didn't realize it. So, when he came in all his greatness, the dissonance was too much to bear, and they rejected him. They didn't want that God — the one they had dismissed or overlooked or ignored. They wanted a different one. A shinier one. One that didn't look like the "right now" of their lives.

But that's where God is, folks. He's in the right now, and nowhere else. He's waiting there for you, with all the happiness, holiness, and beauty your life needs.

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."
— Mark 6:4

A Vacation is No Vacation without Mass

Does your Summer vacation sometimes include taking a vacation from Mass? Finding a Mass when you are away from home, or fitting it into a Summer schedule can mean making special efforts. Here are four reasons to fit Mass into your Summer routine:

Wherever Mass is said anywhere in the world, millions of people you don't know are praying for you and with you. Where else can you get that kind of help?

Attending Mass connects you to the Communion of Saints—the saints in heaven, the souls in purgatory and believers on earth. That's powerful company.

After Jesus ascended to Heaven, His followers formed the early Church to keep His message alive. Every time you attend Mass, you help to keep Jesus' message alive.

God commanded us to keep holy the Sabbath, and Mass is the way a Catholic fulfills that requirement. If God tells you to do something, it's a good idea to do it.

Note: to find a Church or Mass time anywhere in the country, see

A farmer was driving his horse and wagon to town for a load of grain when he had a head on collision with an automobile. He was lying there seriously injured. Soon afterward came the usual legal procedures with the insurance company. When he was in court, he took the stand and a lawyer said to him, "While you were lying there at the scene of the accident, didn't someone come up to you and ask how you were feeling? And didn't you answer by saying that you 'never felt better in your life?' What were the circumstances when you answered as to how you felt?"

"Well, as I was lying there, a car drove up and a deputy sheriff got out. My horse was writhing in pain and kicking with two broken legs. The deputy sheriff put the gun in his ear and put the horse out of its misery." He said, "My dog had a broken back and was whining, and he went over and did the same thing and shot him. And then came over to me and asked, "And how are you feeling?"
